Canadian Access Federation

Members can enjoy discounted pricing to participate in the Canadian Access Federation (CAF). CAF provides a trusted identity and access management environment for the Canadian research and education community. CAF post-secondary institution participants are given access to a growing suite of identity-related services, which today include eduroam and Federated Identity Management (FIM).

Post-secondary institutions that participate in CAF enjoy meaningful process and cost efficiencies, while supporting an increasingly mobile community of students, staff, and faculty. CANARIE currently supports between 17 and 36 million eduroam logins per month, and the CAF community has grown to 145 participating institutions and service providers.

Service and content providers who participate in CAF simplify their access protocols and administrative costs while reaching a broad community of higher education students, researchers, and faculty.

CANARIE Event Sponsorship Program

CANARIE Members can increase their exposure to and collaboration with Canada's research, education, and innovation communities by sponsoring the CANARIE Summit at a discounted rate.

The CANARIE Summit is a two-day event held in a major Canadian city. Attendees participate in a range of sessions that focus on the technologies, partnerships and opportunities that are driving Canadian innovation.

The 2019 Summit drew senior leaders from the higher education, not-for-profit, government and private sectors. Speakers addressed cybersecurity and attendees reported high satisfaction with the event, with an average satisfaction score of 93%. An overwhelming majority of participants said they would recommend the Summit to colleagues.

Summit sponsorship packages range in price from $5,100 to $10,100, toward which the annual Member discount of $2,600 can be applied*.

To learn more about sponsoring opportunities for the CANARIE Summit, please contact Ela Yazdani, Director, Communications at ela.yazdani@canarie.ca.

* The total Member discount in any given year is $2,600, i.e. it is not possible to opt for both a CAF participation fee discount and an event sponsorship discount in the same year.
